

Reportable Criteria for Serious Incident Reports (SIR) are as follows:

A. Accidents or incidents involving Department of the Army personnel which result in:

(1) Death of U.S. military personnel, Department of Defense (DOD) Civilian personnel, family member of U.S. Army or DOD personnel, and local national employee (excluding natural death and sudden death syndrome of family members).

(2) Critical injury to military/DOD personnel/family members, local national that is expected to result in death.

(3) Significant damage (exceeding $25,000) to U.S. or Host Nation Property.

B. Demonstrations involving persons on or near U.S. installations or U.S. shared installations.

C. Accidents or incidents that reduce U.S. combat capability (e.g., damage to an aircraft or destruction of an armored vehicle.)

D. Training accident which cause death or serious injury to U.S. Army personnel.

E. Serious crimes (i.e., aggravated assault; kidnapping; rape; larceny exceeding $10,000; distribution, transportation or sale of illegal drugs exceeding $5,000; murder or attempted murder) committed against or by military, civilian employees or family members.

F. Fires on U.S. installations, which result in serious injury, death, or damages exceeding $10,000.

G. Any accident, event or incident where adverse publicity is expected.

H. Terrorist activities or sabotage that occurs on U.S. installation(s) or directed against U.S. military/civilian.

I. Lost or stolen weapons or sensitive items.

J. Aircraft accidents that result in death, injury or damage exceeding $10,000.

K. Accidental discharge of a weapon used by U.S. Army personnel or U.S. employed guards with the following exceptions:

(1) Accidental discharges into firing ranges that land within the impact area and do not result in property damage or injury.

(2) Accidental discharges into cleaning barrels that do not result in property damage or injury.

L. DUI of U.S. military personnel, Department of the Army Civilian (DAC) personnel and family members of U.S. Army/DAC personnel.

M. Serious illness with the prognosis of death of U.S. Army/DAC personnel/family members of U.S. Army/DAC personnel (excluding sudden infant death syndrome of family members).

N. Bombings resulting in death or injury to U.S. Army/DAC personnel/family members or damage to U.S. Army property.

O. Fuel spills in excess of 100 U.S. gallons or contamination of a water source.

P. Suicide or attempted suicide (life threatening) by U.S. Army/DAC personnel/family members.

Q. Off post incidents involving U.S. Army/DAC personnel/family members that require unusual effort to quell by U.S. military police, host nation police or both.

R. On post or off post incidents involving group attacks.

S. War crimes, including mistreatment of enemy prisoners of war or detainees, violations of the Geneva Conventions, and atrocities.

T. Requests by members of the U.S. Army for political asylum in foreign countries.

U. Incidents involving material damage that seriously degrade unit operational or training readiness.

V. Threats against Government weapons and ammunition.

W. Child abuse occurring in any Army-operated or regulated activity. Examples as follows:

(1) Any child sexual abuse regardless of the nature of the injury.

(2) Any physical injury resulting in the death of or major injury to the child (as defined in AR 608-18, app E, item 13a).

(3) Any child neglect that involves the deprivation of necessities (as defined in AR 608-18, app E) and that is determined to be widespread, chronic, or potentially life threatening.

X. Improper actions on the part of an U.S. soldier resulting in the death of a local national or with the potential for immediate adverse media attention.

Y. Border incidents or violations involving U.S. personnel. Incidents are defined as occurrences involving individuals or equipment close to a neighboring country or accidental crossing of a neighboring country border that reflect unfavorably on the United States or the host nation.

Z. Any other incident the commander determines to be of immediate concern to USAREUR or any incident, which the Watch Officer is unsure, based on the nature, gravity, potential for adverse publicity, or potential consequences of the incident.